FR

Sarah, 30 ans, belle et intelligente, a tout pour réussir. Mais son anxiété et sa peur de ne pas être exceptionnelle la poussent à l'inertie. Un matin de janvier, après un énorme black-out, elle se réveille dans une maison de banlieue inconnue. De cet incident naîtra l'envie de se reconstruire. Pour y arriver, elle devra détruire tout ce qui l'entoure, en commençant par ses copines.

ENG

Julie is having a bad day, waking up in an unfamiliar house. She realizes that she spent the night with an underage boy when his middle-aged mother arrives. Things get worse when she gets dragged to a bachelorette party with all the girlfriends with whom she's lost touch. Intent on making everyone's day as bad as hers, Julie reveals some secrets that should perhaps have been left unspoken. Director Monia Chokri provides the viewer with a hilarious slice-of-life story about a woman trapped in often uncomfortable situations.
