FR

Chérif, 15 ans, est un adolescent rebelle et solitaire. Dépassée, sa mère décide de le placer chez son oncle et sa tante à Strasbourg, où il doit reprendre son CAP maçonnerie. C'est sa dernière chance. Très vite, dans cette nouvelle vie, Chérif étouffe. Mais toutes les nuits, des gaffeurs œuvrent sur les murs de la ville. Un nouveau monde s'offre à lui...

ENG

While most people associate France with baguettes, berets and bad hygiene, the country actually has one of the world's most thriving street culture scenes, with a huge hip-hop following and, as anyone who's ventured into Paris' suburbs can attest, a landscape marked by graffiti. The latter is the setting for director Helier Cisterne's first feature, Vandal, a rather systematic coming-of-age story whose main interest is its depiction of a gang of urban teens tagging up the city of Strasbourg.
