DELF JUNIOR

Internationally recognized certificates

Registration Period: Monday, 2nd November to Tuesday, 17th November 2026

Registration deadline: Tuesday, 17th November 2026

Only ONLINE registration is possible

Level	Date	Exam fee for current AFD students			Exam fee for EXTERNAL students
		Exam fee	GST 18%	TOTAL fee	Exam fee	GST 18%	TOTAL fee
A1 J	Saturday, 5th December	6,175	1,112	7,287	9,500	1,710	11,210
A2 J	Friday, 4th December	6,650	1,197	7,847	9,500	1,710	11,210
B1 J	Thursday, 3rd December	7,420	1,336	8,756	11,240	2,023	13,263

Result to be published on 19th January 2027.

Limited seats are available.

- DELF Junior Exams are only valid for candidates between 11-17 years old.
- The age will be considered from the date of the registration.
- It's mandatory to carry any one of your govt. approved photo Identity proof with a hard copy of your DELF Junior receipt on the examination day to verify your identity.
- There are two different timings for Oral & Written exam. Kindly check Oral and Written exam timings separately from the website.

Registration Procedure :

- DELF-DALF registration can be done ONLINE through our website as per the exam schedule.
- For OFFLINE registration, you must visit the AFD center with your account created on the Kiosque platform.
- Uploading your photograph and Govt. ID during account creation is MANDATORY.

Other Important Information:

- Please note that the exam will start exactly at the mentioned time so, no latecomers will be allowed to sit for the exam.
- The students should appear in all the sections of exam in order to clear it. The first section will be Oral followed by Listening and Written. There is a gap of sometime between Oral and Listening exam.
- The information mentioned on the form by the candidate i.e. DOB, Place of birth, First and last name should match exactly with the provided documents of the candidate which can otherwise lead to penalty charges.

- Your signature on the candidates' information sheet, which is circulated in the examination hall on the day of exam, will be taken as the final confirmation of the details provided by you. A candidate has to pay Rs. 4000/- for any further changes or corrections.
- Students from other Alliance Françaises are advised to contact Front desk with their latest AF receipt during online registration to avail internal student price.
- Registration is on first come first served basis.
- Registration will open online from 12:00 am onwards.
- Exam timings (Oral & Written) & Room no. can be checked from AFD website (www.afdelhi.org) /AFD notice board 2-3 days before the exam.
- Those who have already appeared for DELF-DALF are requested to write their 'Numéro de Candidat' (mentioned on the DELF-DALF certificate) while filling up the form.
- It is required for every candidate to write the 'Numéro de candidat' on answer sheets. Numéro de candidat will be available for all the levels on notice board on the examination day. It is important to keep a note of the numéro de candidat' in order to check your result.

No refund applications will be accepted for any reason once the registration is done by the candidate.

Mickaël PAVY
Academic Director