2. The time required to translate a given document depends on the document's volume and nature. The minimum time frame is 4 working days (Saturday included while calculating the working days).
3. 80% of the estimated total for translations falling under the category of rates per word, to be paid in advance and balance as per the final invoice to be paid before the delivery. For flat rates 100% advance is payable.
4. The final invoice will be raised based on the actual word count of the translated document. There can be a variation in the final figure up to 25% on both the upper and lower side. To have accuracy in the word count for calculating the payment, kindly provide us with the word document to be translated.
5. An urgent translation within 24 hours or in less time period as per the mutual agreement is charged at double the normal rates.
6. Two copies of the translation will be handed over initially, and 500 INR will be charged for every additional translation set. 1000 INR will be charged per set for any translation older than 2 years.
